

64 Congratulations! You've made it through!

63 Oops! Some of your group haven't turned up for the presentation

62

61

60 All of the group checks the final draft

59

58

57 You've been left to put the final task together by yourself

49

50

51 The group progress on the task is ahead of schedule

52 Two group members have started fighting

53 Everyone's on track to finish on time

54

55

56

48 A group member drops out and takes their work with them

47

46

45

44

43 One group member has decided to "fix" everyone's works

42

41 You find out a group member hasn't started their part yet

33 Your group is powering through the task

34

35

36 Your group's planning and delegating is motivating everyone

37

38

39 Everyone in the group has created their own versions of the task

40

32

31 You make changes to the group plan without discussion

30

29

28 You've had no contact with the group for two weeks. What is going on?

27 Your group is sharing readings and research with each other

26

25

17

18 You get stuck on your task so you ask your group for help

19 You find out your group has met without you

20

21 You complain about your group to other classmates

22

23

24 In a group meeting, you encourage the quietest member to speak up

16 The group has agreed to regular meetings

15

14

13 Your group creates a timeline for doing the task

12

11

10 No one can find time to meet as a group each week

9

1

2 You meet your group and agree on how to work together

3

4

5 You don't like group-work because you've always had bad experiences

6

7

8 Your group arranges a meeting to discuss roles and the task